Gill, Ireland, 2013. Spiral bound. Condition: New. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. Sounds Good Phonics is an exciting series that has all the material needed to consolidate pupils learning of phonics. Designed to be used alongside any existing phonics programme, it provides structured, step-by-step activities to develop phonics skills and caters for the everyday challenges teachers may face: Promotes full pupil participation in a large class throughout a lesson Offers forms of assessment that will best provide accurate information regarding the progress of the individual pupil Supports a teaching structure that caters for all abilities in a spiral manner The series uses a number of methodologies that will help teachers to consolidate and further enhance the teaching of phonics in their class: Phonics fans in each activity book, used with numerous reinforcing games included in the teacher s handbooks, ensure that every child must offer an answer to each phonics question Blending activities based on groups of sounds are included throughout the activity books Phonics for fun sessions are a perfect support for station working and group work Regular revision pages consolidate learning TEACHER SUPPORT Full-colour Teacher s Handbooks include: Four copies of each test with different content in each to prevent copying Directory of words which acts as an excellent quick reference guide for busy teachers DIGITAL RESOURCES Digital material to support the series is available for teachers on our digital resources website. These include a bank of printable blending worksheets, as well as reading and dictation sheets. These structured sheets present blending in manageable chunks, allowing even the weakest pupil to experience success.
