Anastasi Books, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Spin the Plate is a heroic story of one woman s emotional, spiritual, legal, and ultimately romantic journey as she fights to heal the wounds of familial sexual abuse. Jo is a survivor of a bleak and abusive childhood. She channels her pain and rage into weight training and roams the streets of Boston at night as a powerful vigilante. While she is more than capable of defending herself against physical danger, she is defenseless against the memories of the past that torment her. Francis is a mysterious man she meets on the subway train. An average-guy hero, he battles to win the battered heart of a tough, wary, less-than-perfect heroine. A fast-paced, edgy, darkly comic tale of resilience, romance, and redemption that breaks over you in waves. All you can do is gasp, stay afloat, and enjoy the ride. -- Holly Robinson, author of Haven Lake and Chance Harbor The novel has won awards for Contemporary Romance, Cross Genre Fiction and Women s Literature. A Pack of Dogs productions feature-length indie film based on the novel and starring Becki Dennis is coming soon!.
