Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Did you ever wonder how you would handle a tragic situation or deal with some news that was totally not imaginable! Saying Goodbye to Sonny is a story of how we dealt with the news that our 56 year old brother was afflicted with leukemia. This is a tale told in my perspective, his little sister, and begins a bleak December night with a phone call from him. The book cronic the events month to month of how his mother, two sisters, and three brothers together helped Sonny come to terms with this all the way to death. Through the year we all grew closer and discovered a brother that had great faith and generosity. Get ready to cry, laugh, and find similarities with your loved ones. Most importantly, get ready to discover faith which was the key in helping us to Say Goodbye to Sonny.
