She is one of a kind. --Mary Monroe, New York Times bestselling author Teen sisters Sahara and Crystal Nichols are acting up, and their risque behavior is more than their mother can handle. Enter the girls 75-year-old churchgoing grandmother, Ma Ray, who takes charge of the young women. She s determined to turn their lives around--and knows more about being a bad girl than either sister bargained for. And when they learn of their grandmother s former rebel antics, which were wild enough to rival their own, they begin to appreciate her present-day passion for leading a more productive life--via family, love, and faith. . . There are enough tears, hugs, and lessons learned to appease readers, young and adult, who like a good dose of faith with their fiction. --Publishers Weekly.
