Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ideal for both the train, and armchair, traveler, this collection of augmented word search puzzles and their solutions takes the ardent puzzler on a journey from Liverpool to Sunderland, providing interesting snippets of information pertaining to the cities, towns and villages with stations along the way. The origin of each place name is given, with the vocabulary lists being comprised of pertinent facts relating to the people, events and landmarks associated with the areas concerned. When the words given in the lists have all been struck through, the remaining letters in each puzzle spell out part of a quotation relevant to the particular place. Each quotation is contextualized in a paragraph or two which gives additional insight into the topic involved. The vocabulary lists are easy to understand, with the explanations of any abbreviations used being provided in an appended glossary. An index, arranged according to place name, gives the location of all puzzles and solutions, thus providing ease of access for any teacher who might decide to use the puzzles in a classroom setting.
