Their lives are full of carefree frolicking during the day, and racing imaginations at night. Their adventures are so much fun, that they agree to meet in their dreams and continue playing together all night long. As they are dashing, dancing, and skipping through their dreams, they encounter more wild lands than they ever expected. This frightens them at first, but they soon discover that any doubts in their dreams can be transformed into beautiful scenes. They do not have to be afraid of their own dreams and imaginations.
