JOHN LENNON IN CONVERSATION: AN INTERVIEW WITH PROFESSOR TONY TAYLOR

Earl of Seacliff Art Workshop. Paperback. Condition: New. 40 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. A unique interview with John Lennon which was recorded when The Beatles were in New Zealand in 1964. It was recorded by Psychology Professor Dr Tony Taylor who was at the time doing a study into Beatlemania. It gives a remarkable insight into Lennons thoughts regarding fame, music and life generally at a time when the group was still new to all the world-wide adulation they were receiving. I have included an attachment of both the covers and the text for you to enjoy and to quote from if you think it will help the posting for your blog. I think this is something of a coup for a New Zealand publisher as it must be one of the last unpublished interviews with John Lennon and it has been an honour to work with Dr Taylor on the project. You will note that my poem The Flipside of the Ballad of John and Yoko appears at the end of the book as an antidote to the effects of fame. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
