Excerpt: . . . 11 United States Attorney General Alberto Gonzales announced the addition of federal prosecutors to handle immigration-related offenses and drug trafficking in states along the border with Mexico. Gonzales is quoted as saying There is some correla-tion. Obviously smuggling occurs in connection with illegal immigration. Also there is a serious drug trafficking problem on our southern border. With that in mind, the El Paso County Sheriffs Office has been critized and ac-cused of enforcing immigration law by several Human Rights groups. We are aware that we can only stop someone based on reasonable suspicion and make an arrest based on probable cause. Under the provision of H. R. 4437, subsection 240 D was added to the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) to clarify that states have the inherent authority to enforce immigration law. The Senate bill (...)
