Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.About the author: Anthony earned a full merit scholarship to a top 50 university upon graduating from a fairly average public high school in Virginia. By working hard in college on classes, part time jobs, and internships, Anthony graduated with honors, no debt, an investment portfolio, and some fun memories. Through this book, he hopes to help parents and students achieve their goals and maximize their potential. About this book: This concise and practical guide showcases proven strategies. It is based on the personal experiences of a highly successful student, as well as conversations with other top performers. Struggling students will get a comprehensive framework for college preparation, and top students will likely pick up helpful tips that enhance performance. Practical and effective techniques are covered throughout the book to help students cope with the day to day rigors of high school and plan ahead throughout the four years. Topics include classes, grades, test skills (including the SAT), extracurricular activities, competition, mindset, awards, essays, recommendation letters, interviews, and college applications. Overall, readers will receive a solid understanding and effective tools to help them succeed in school and gain acceptance to a great college.
